

Air Quality Consulting Services for Stationary Source

GEC provides multiple integrated services to help you meet your compliance assurance and permitting needs for Stationary Source of Air Pollutants:

- ◆ Walk-through facility inspections for evaluation of regulatory compliance or air permit need determination
- ◆ Air Construction/Operation permit application or renewal preparation:
 - General
 - Synthetic Non Title V
 - Federally Enforceable State Operating Permits
 - Title V
- ◆ Preparation of required periodic compliance and operating reports
- ◆ Monthly record keeping maintenance (initial spreadsheet production and monthly updating)
- ◆ Visible Emissions evaluation
- ◆ Air pollutant emissions testing
- ◆ Expert testimony
- ◆ Enforcement negotiations

Contact:

Thomas J. Mulligan, P.E.

Senior Environmental Engineer
tjmulligan@g-e-c.com

Tom has 15 years experience in both private consulting and public service, including 5 years as Supervisor of Compliance for the Division of Air Resource Management at the Central District Office of the Florida Department of Environmental Protection.